Academy Opens Thursday.

Charles H. Yale sends out his "Ever lasting Devil's Auction" Company, and this year the introduction of a number of European specialties is particularly pleasing to the ladies and chil-

This is a strong feature of this production, and to this point have been engaged the famous HMI Brothers, acrobatic grotesques.

These artists were among the recent importations of Klaw & Erlanger's advanced vaudeville, and upon the termination of their engagement with that firm, were secured by Manager Yale for his "Devil's Auction" Company.

The scenery, mechanical, transformation and trick changes have always been one of the "Devil's Auction's" strongest features, a fact fully appre-ciated by its management, and not lost sight of in this the twenty-sixth edi-tion.

Quite a number of new scenes and

Quite a number of new scenes and effects have been prepared, notably "the Devil's Voicano," with marvelous electric effects; "the Reaims of Mephisto," introducing at the finale of this scene a most original and novel instantaneous change to a full stage "set," representing "the Beautiful Valley of Andocho"; two new comedy trick scenes, "the Gates of the Castle Morphens," and "the Magic Picture Gallery," which, in conjunction with the magnificent "Zardens of the Manikins," "the Grand Tournament Scene," "the Sphinx Scene," with its many other elaborate changes foo numerous to particularize, promise to make the twenty-sixth edition of "The Everlasting Devil's Auction" the most notable production of its phenomenal career. The production will be here Thursday night.

The Week at Idlewood. The Week at Islewood.

For the coming week the management of Islewood Park will offer a vandeville bill that promises to meavure fully up to the high standard maintained at the popular summer

Two of the three acts for the week have just returned to America; after a tour of several months through Cuba.

have just returned to America; after a tour of several months through Cuba.

Among the artists will be Ed. Esters, in an equilibristic hand-balancing act that is said to be the greatest of its kind now before the public.

The Three Tumbling Toms are also mirth-provoking in a comedy knockahout turn, while Kennedy and Kennedy are said to be far above the average song and dance artists.

The attendance at Idlewood for the past few weeks has been very gratifying, the theatre having very few soat years and and an eventual features, such as band concerts, daily matinees, dancing, etc. will be among the attractions offered those in quest of an eventual's recreation.

Good Bill st Colonial.

The bill at the Colonial for the coming week is one of exceptional merit. The Dieppe auto race, Pathe Frere's efficial picture, and also the great Farman aeroplane, about which so much has recently been read in the newspapers, will be especially strong fectures. Grant and Scott, the Colonial quariet, Sachi Harley & Company, are among the big acts in the talking pictures. The biggest laugh-producers of all Illustrated songs will be sung, and is called "Just Because He Could Not Sing Love Me and the World is and is called "Just Because He Could Not Sing Love Me and the World is Mine." The Colonial will reopen Labor Day with all the best acts in vaude-ville, with Miss Mabel McKinley as the headline.

This $500 Piano is the FIRST PRIZE

Greatest Voting Contest Ever Pulled Off in Virginia or North Carolina

There is a Chance for You for the Total Value of Grand Prizes, Amounting to

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

Remember, it costs nothing to try but the use of your brains. Our reasons for distributing these valuable prizes are as follows: First. We want the name of LESTER to become a household word in the musical families of the South. Second. We want to test the relative advertising value of newspapers. Third. We want to convince every intending purchaser that we have the largest stock of Pianos in the South, and that we give the most liberal terms of payment.

The conditions under which this great contest will be held are as follows: Just count the dots that appear in the outlines of the Lester Piano above. The correct number of dots is known only to the judges. The correct answer has been deposited in the safe deposit vault of the National Bank of Commerce, Norfolk, Va. Each answer will be numbered consecutively as soon as received, and will remain sealed until opened by the following reputable citizens of Norfolk: A. H. Ward, John J. Foster, W. B. Webb. Any one residing in the United States is entitled to ONE answer only.

This contest positively closes Monday, August 31, 1908, at 6 P. M. Every one entering this contest will receive a neat little book of songs, words and music. This book contains over fifty pieces of popular music.

No one engaged in the music business, nor any employe of the Lester Piano Co., will be allowed to enter this contest.

More than 40,000 people attest to our fair and honest dealings, and we can say beyond successful contradiction that we have the largest piano business in the South. The prices of the famous Lester Pianos are well established and are marked in plain figures.

Here are the Grand Prizes: First Grand Prize, one Brand New $500 Lester Upright Piano, in mahogany case. Other grand prizes amounting to $4,500 in order of merit, as follows: Second Grand Prize, one $200 Credit Certificate; Third Grand Prize, one $150 Credit Certificate; Fourth Grand Prize, one $125 Credit Certificate; next Ten Grand Prizes, each, $100 Credit Certificate; next Twenty Grand Prizes, each, $75 Credit Certificate; next Twenty-five Grand Prizes, each, $50 Credit Certificate; next Eleven Grand Prizes, each, $25 Credit Certificate. Grand total,

All answers must be plainly written in the coupon herewith, and must sinte your count of the dots, your name and address, and whether you have an
